Description

In Brief

One of Marlborough's most famous Sauvignon Blancs, spreading the fame of New Zealand as the New World's home for this outstanding and adored variety.

Tasting notes

Room-filling aromas of black currant, mandarin and grapefruit rise from the glass to be joined by complexing tropical notes and sweet herbs. The entry is fresh and juicy with layers of lime, passionfruit, melon, blackcurrant and a touch of red bell-pepper on the finish. Sweet ripeness rides through the palate complimented perfectly by a zesty drive and real focus. Medium weight and good breadth.

Food Pairing

The perfect partner for seafood.
