Description

In Brief

More than a hundred years ago, to prevent his wines from disappearing, Don Melchor from Concha y Toro spread the rumour that the Devil himself lived in his cellar. Like fire, word spread, and fear took hold of everyone who heard it. Nobody ever confirmed the story about his cellar's eerie guardian. However, the Legend remains.

Tasting notes

Straw yellow colour with soft green hues. On the nose: peach with hints of gooseberry and tropical fruit. Gentle, round and mouth - filling wine, with crisp acidity. A long finish, worthy of Reserva.

Food Pairing

Ideal as an aperitif but also with seafood, ceviche and vegetables.
