Description

In Brief

D.V. Catena Tinto Historico Malbec is wine proceed to honour Don Domingo's legendary abilities as a master blender. Domingo Vicente Catena married Angelica Zapata in 1934, thereby beginning the Catena Zapata tradition. He devoted his life to improving the cultivation of the vine in Mendoza. Domingo Vicente Catena, Laura Catena's grandfather, thought that Malbec could made a wine as great as the great wines of France. Upon his death, his son Nicolas Catena decided to honour his father by making Malbec in Argentina that is world famous.

Tasting notes

Beautiful ruby red colour. Rich on the nose, with hints of plum, blueberry and cocoa. On the palate - balanced with sweet spice and ripe tannins.

Food Pairing

Excellent with beef, lamb and pork on the grill, wild mushrooms or blue cheese.
