Description

In Brief

Love has many vines, beautiful in its own way. Branches often pruned and sometimes broken. Laden with heroes and villains, victors and victims. These special release Babich wines personify our love of the unique characteristics of New Zealand wine. Rich in diversity, confident in expression and subtle charms that bring a pleasure not easily forgotten like The Queen of Hearts Sauvignon Blanc.

Tasting notes

Nose: grapefruit leads into lime with a trace of nettle orange blossom. Palate: nicely textured juicy entry with an abundance of fruit including mandarin and gooseberry, lime and green apple. This is a bright wine with a lingering finish.

Food Pairing

An attractive aperitif. Also goes well with light dishes: salads, seafood, lighter meats and pastas.
