Description

In Brief The Brew Master commemorates Johann Graue - a brew master who revolutionised South African winemaking through clonal selection. Co-owner of a German brewery before he acquired Nederburg in 1937.

Tasting notes Dark cherry, plum, black and blue berries with vibrant spice. Fresh and structured, with a supple core of dark fruit, a note of pencil shavings and a hint of cocoa. Concentrated and cellar-worthy.

Food Pairing Slow-roasted lamb, rich oxtail or duck, robust chicken and pasta dishes, hearty soups, and mature cheeses.
