| In Brief | In 1984, Count Giuseppe Tasca d'Almerita decided to celebrate 50 years of marriage ("nozze d'oro" means "golden anniversary") with his wife Franca by making a wine that told the story of the family and of Regaleali. Nozze d'Oro is the result of the blending of Inzolia from the Barbabietole Vineyard and a white grape variety called "Tasca variety" by local winemakers. A grape of "foreign" origin, it has been present in a few vineyards of the Estate since the 1920s. |

| Tasting notes | Bright yellow colour. On the nose: notes of apple, peach, melon, jasmine, and honey. On the palate, the wine is expressive and fruit-forward with good body, alluring flavours and a pleasant, long finish. |
