Description

In Brief	The grapes come from old bush vines averaging 75 years of age, with exceptional concentration of fruit — from sandy soils to red-brown earth over clay. Each parcel brings its own character, building the complexity of the wine.
Tasting notes	Red cherry sits at the core, supported by milk chocolate and dried herb notes. Blueberry and damson plum emerge, alongside a gentle violet perfume and an earthy note reminiscent of rain on soil. On the palate: refined and moreish, with bright red fruit balanced by natural acidity, and a savoury, refreshing finish.
Food Pairing	Peking duck with pancakes, hoisin and cucumber, or charred beetroot with garlic, coriander seed and tahini.
