Description

In Brief	The grapes come from Barossa vineyards of varying age and soil type, contributing to the diversity of flavours in the final wine.
Tasting notes	Deep, inky crimson with a vibrant purple rim. Aromas of blackberry and ripe plums layered with clove and nutmeg. On the palate: rich and generous, with dark berries and plums wrapped in suede-like tannins, leading to a long, plush finish.
Food Pairing	Slow-cooked beef short ribs with rosemary and garlic, alongside baked potatoes. Smoky eggplant and lentil moussaka.
