Description

In Brief	Yalumba has pioneered the growing of Viognier in Australia since its first vineyard plantings high in the Eden Valley in 1980. The grapes are sourced from six separate blocks across four vineyards, artfully blended together.
Tasting notes	Alluring aromas of fresh apricots, ginger and delicate white flowers. Silky and long with lush, layered texture, the palate features apricot and stone fruit flavours complemented by exotic spice, hints of orange oil and a refreshing finish.
Food Pairing	Slow-cooked lamb shoulder with Mediterranean herbs over saffron rice, roasted cauliflower with sunflower seeds and buckwheat, or baba ganoush and couscous with sauteed saltbush.
